The Constitution of Colleges Against Cancer, MIT (CAC)

Article I: Purpose
The purpose of Colleges Against Cancer, MIT (CAC) is to fight cancer through grassroots advocacy, prevention and early detection education, Relay For Life, and activities honoring cancer survivors.

Article II: Membership
1. Any member of the MIT community is eligible to become a member of this organization. One is considered a member of this organization in any given academic term if he or she has attended at least one club activity and one meeting in the preceding or current term.
2. The organization’s membership will at all times consist of at least 5 MIT students and be more than half MIT students.
3. This organization will not discriminate based on any characteristic listed in MIT’s Nondiscrimination Statement.
4. This organization does not charge any monetary dues.

Article III: Officers
1. This organization will have three officers:
   a. President
      - The president shall be the official representative of the group to any organization and to MIT.
      - The president will preside over meetings in the fall semester.
      - The president is responsible for determining when meetings are and publicizing this to the group.
   b. Relay For Life Director
      - The Relay For Life Director shall be the main contact for the annual Relay For Life event.
      - The Relay For Life Director will preside over meetings in the spring semester.
      - Supports the President in his or her duties
   c. Treasurer
      - The treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the group.
      - The treasurer is required to sign all checks/vouchers of the group.
2. Officer eligibility:
   a. All officers of this organization must be distinct persons who are current MIT students.
   b. Officers may be re-elected to the same position in consecutive elections.
3. Elections:
   a. Elections of officers shall occur at the end of the spring semester.
   b. Any member of this organization is eligible to run for office.
   c. Quorum for elections is one-half of all members of the group.
   d. Any member is elected if he or she wins a majority of the voting members.
   e. If more than two people are running and no one wins a majority, then the person with the fewest votes is dropped from the ballot and votes are recast.
   f. The term of office runs from one election to the next.
4. Removal: Officers may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the members.

Article IV: Meetings
1. Meetings shall be held at least once a month (from September to March).
2. Meetings shall be presided over by the President in the fall semester and the Relay For Life Director in the spring semester.
3. All decisions shall be made by a majority vote of all members present.
4. Quorum for a meeting shall be one quarter of the members of the organization.

Article V: Amendments
1. Amendments shall be presented by any member of the organization.
2. Amendments shall be passed by a majority vote of the members present.
3. Quorum for amending this constitution shall be a majority of all members of the organization.

Article VI: ASA Governance Clause
Colleges Against Cancer, MIT (CAC) agrees to abide by the rules and regulations of the Association of Student Activities, and its executive board. This constitution, amendments to it, and the by-laws of this organization shall be subject to review by the ASA Executive Board to insure that they are in accordance with the aforementioned rules and regulations.